Summary: (machine translated) Relatively open and small canyon, with little water in summer, also good for beginners.
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) From Castellane (on the Verdon, on the Route Napoleon) on the D 952 via La Palud-sur-Verdon to Moustiers-Sainte-Marie (about 45 km).\nFrom Moustiers-Sainte-Marie on the D 952 continue in the direction of Riez. About 3 km after the village we go through 2 hairpin bends and about 1 km further we come to a hill. Here we turn right in the direction of Montdernier. The road also leads to a campsite and the ruins of Egaras.\n4.4 km after the turnoff, we turn left at a prominent tree in the road triangle onto a dirt road, descend slightly for about 1 km, cross the Colostre stream, and ride up the opposite slope for another 800 m in a left turn. We reach a saddle and park the car here.
Approach: (machine translated) From the saddle, a clear path leads down to the left (in a southerly direction) and we come to the stream on it about 100 m above the beginning of the gorge.
Tour: (machine translated) Friendly short canyon with small rappels
Return: (machine translated) At the exit of the canyon, we take the path up to the right (north direction). It leads us to a dirt road where we turn right (keeping right in case of doubt) to the car.
