Summary: (machine translated) A short but well hollowed canyon, unfortunately marred by the long approach and return. 1/4 stars
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) From Caviano (CH), reach the hamlet of Scaiano and park in the park in the obvious parking lot at the exit of the road (in front of the the historic center) (46°06'11.7 "N 8°45'41.5 "E).
Approach: (machine translated) - From the parking lot, drive into the historic center and follow the signs direction Monti di Caviano. Walk up between the houses until you find the road asphalted road at a helipad; at the at the barrier that closes the dirt road, the path begins the path to Monti di Caviano on the right (Sentiero Cento fields). On the way up, at a chapel, you will find the path on the right right the path that leads down to the streambed and which you use for the used for the exit. The path then rejoins the road rejoins the road and leaves it shortly afterwards to reach a viewpoint viewpoint (small chapel) and the Monti di Caviano. Enter the mountain pasture, keep to the right and recognize the path flat path to Monti di Pino. The path leads into the valley and soon reaches the Dirinella stream. Go down to the bank left bank along the stream to the beginning of the of the canyon (46°05'58 "N 8°46'12 "E). About 1h 10' for 375m D+.
Tour:

Return: (machine translated)

Way back: After the last abseiling point (45 m), walk along the streambed for about 400 m and watch out for the path on the right bank.

Look out for the path on the right bank that leads up to the small chapel you saw on the way out.

It may be useful to descend during the approach to memorize the exit. Then follow the path of the approach (approx. 30 minutes for 200 m D-).
