Summary: (machine translated) Raw data import from Ropewiki https://ropewiki.com/Birks  The Birks of Aberfeldy are a scenic canyon. It was made famous by a poem of the same name by Rabbe Burns. The footpath along the edge of the canyon is well maintained and very popular with tourists, so there is often a crowd as you descend the first slope. The rest of the canyon is well hidden and feels like its own little world. For locals, it's a fun outing where you get a new perspective on this well-traveled area. The descent is mainly technical in nature, but also offers some slides and jumps if you know where to go.... (machine translated)
