Summary: (machine translated) Aquatic descent in a river, without much gradient, between narrow and towering walls.
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) From Château d'Oex in the Saane Valley, we take the B11, Route des Mosses in the direction of Aigle (in the Rhône Valley). We turn off Grande Rue at the traffic circle and after 1.6 km we reach the road junction at the hamlet of La Rosette. Here it is possible to start a car transfer (not necessary and not necessarily worthwhile). To do this, turn right on the road to Les moulins, Bulle. We go downhill slightly for 500m and then turn left on a narrow road that takes us south for another 600m until its exit at a farm. Here park the car for the exit in a suitable place. Back to the road junction at La Rosette with the second car. From here continue on the B11 in a southerly direction - Aigle. The road now runs high up along the canyon rim. We drive 2.1 km from La Rosette, then we see on the righthand side a parking lot with a small house of the road maintenance department. Here we park our - possibly second - car.
Approach: (machine translated) We take the forest road that branches off from the tarred road at the southern exit of Parlplatz and follow it until a trail-less descent down to the river on the right seems possible. A little further on the forest road (about 200m) a steep path should lead down to the river. At the bottom, you meet a trail that accompanies the Torneresse on the right bank. After about 5 minutes the track changes to the orographic left side of the river, where after another 7 minutes we come to the entry at the large rock in the middle of the river.
Tour: (machine translated) Initially still in open valley we soon come to narrowly cut chutes with small slides and jumps. Swimming passages are relatively rare. Finally, the narrowness widens again and we walk the last meters in a wide streambed.
Return: (machine translated) We take the path that leads out of the river on the right, cross a small marshy clearing and come to a meadow. At the left edge of the meadow we go up under trees, meet a hiking trail and follow it to the right to the farm, where our first parked car may be. If we don't have a car here, we climb up along the edge of the meadow to the road (B11) and follow this in a southerly direction to the car.
