Popular canyon walking area used by numerous centers throughout the North of England and very (!) busy in the summer months. Recent (2016) damage to paths during the summer season may jeopardize future access. The canyon itself is short and easy, but very picturesque. A 10m rappel to start (Ashgill Force). The anchors are chaotic and seem to have been placed without much of a plan. There are over 6 bolts - some must be around or over 15 years old ("ownership" of these bolts is actually a...
