Summary: (machine translated) Rappel canyon in stratified limestone
Hydrology: http://www.saihebro.com/saihebro/index.php?url=/datos/ficha/estacion:A321
Access: (machine translated) On the A-15, either from the north (San Sebastian) or about 18 km from Pamplona, take the Irurtzun exit. From this town on the NA-7010 in the direction of Asiain. After about 7 km, at Anoz, the road turns west towards Goni. We bring one vehicle to the end of the canyon by stopping at the next but one turnoff south towards Ulzurrun, leaving the village in a southwesterly direction towards the cemetery and Arteta spring ('nacedero', nacimiento). The access to the Arteta Spring and the parking lot there may be temporarily blocked with iron gates. Then park the car about 50 m before the first gate on the right.  With the second car we go back via Ulzurrun and in serpentines up to Goni. We pass through the village and the road then drops slightly downhill after a left turn in a southerly direction. After about 1 km you cross the left tributary to the Artazul, over which you can enter. However, it is more advisable to continue for about 1.5 km until the road crosses another streambed in front of a barn. The entry over this creek offers an additional attractive rappel. Park car 300m before(!) the bridge in bulge left of the road. http://www.wikiloc.com/wikiloc/view.do?id=13371082
Approach: (machine translated) From the parking lot to the canyon rim (fence crossing) and on the trail to the right to the creek.
Tour: (machine translated) Attractive descent when water is flowing; otherwise stinky pools where climbing out over a rock bar can be difficult if there is a 'marmita trampa' (in 2008 there was tape on the bar). Although the pools are generally not too deep, there are some possible jumps. In case of strong water flow, the last pools before the high final rappel are dangerous due to the then existing backflows (last fatal accident anno 2018).
Return: (machine translated) After the 42 m rappel, take the paved path out to the Arteta spring and the vehicle parked there. If the gates (2) are blocked, they can be easily climbed over.
