Alternatively, along the path path from part 2 or 3 you can assess the flow from the Alpe Lavaree bridge Lavaree (see photo on the right with low flow).
Access: Bei Indemini oder Daca parkieren.
Approach: Es wird empfohlen eine offline Karte zu haben, denn es gibt nicht guten Empfang im Tal, und Swisstopo zeigt dort auch nicht alle Wege an. Wenn man Sci-aga weiter geht, knickt der offizielle Wanderweg bei einem Reservoir nach Links ab, dem folgt man noch bis kurz davor er wieder in Wald geht, an dieser Stelle geht rechts ein Pfad der mit Blauen Punkten Markiert ist hoch zum Einstieg des Zweiten Part des Canyons, start auf 1290m.
Tour: (machine translated) Description: Hidden at the foot of the Veddasca Valley, it is probably the most difficult stream to reach in the Varese Pre-Alps. Complicated to reach. However, the long approach and the non-trivial return are rewarded by a The descent is continuous and full of surprises. The upper, vertical and open part is followed by a middle and lower part lower part, which is much more watery and branchy.
Return: Nach dem Zusammenfluss mit der Giona geht es eine 3m Rutsche runter, und man läuft rund 100m. Dann kommen wieder Blaue Markierungen die den Hang hoch gehen zurück nach Indemini. Sehr anstrengender Aufstieg.

Cool day, but quite long, just to get from Bellinzona/Locarno to Indemini you have to ride for almost an hour. Very slippery in places, so even quite small jumps suddenly become much more challenging than they look. Access to part 2 is surprisingly easy. (machine translated)
