Résumé: (traduction alternative) Rappel canyon at the beginning of a great canyon
Hydrologie:
Accès: (traduction alternative) Approach either from Rome (about 100 km from the junction with the A-1) or from Pescara / Adria (about 100 km from the junction with the A-14), in each case on the A-24.At the Celano exit (about 12 km east of Avezzano), turn off towards Celano and continue northwards up to Ovindoli (1379 m above sea level). Shortly after Ovindoli, a road - it later becomes a dirt road - leads in an easterly direction. Keeping to the right, one continues for about 4 km across the plateau to its exit. Leave the car at the point where trail no. 12 leaves the plain to the southeast (first climbing a bit, then descending into the Gole di Celano).
Approche: (traduction alternative) From the parking lot, turn north, cross the stream, see a fountain on the righthand side, pass it and follow the course of the stream on the orographic left. At 1220 m above sea level you come to the actual entry into the canyons.
Tour: (traduction alternative) The somewhat different forest canyon - not without charm.\nAfter this tour you can also walk the entire canyon on the hiking trail down, but then should have parked a second vehicle at the exit of the canyon. To do this, just before (below) the village of Celano, follow the signs 'la Foce' eastward along a dirt road to the parking lot not far from the canyon exit.
Retour: (traduction alternative) After the last 9m rappel, which can be bypassed on the left, continue walking along the streambed, past the 'Fonte degli Innamorati' (1029m), until you meet the crossing trail n. 12. Follow it up to the right (also orographic right) to reach the car.
