Résumé: (traduction alternative)

Long, gloomy, secluded and spartanly furnished. Unfortunately, over long stretches either dry or totally caked and thus not worthwhile.\n

Hydrologie:

Accès: (traduction alternative)

From Bled follow road 209 until about one kilometer before Bohinjska Bistrica, here turn right onto the road towards Jereka. Just before the village turn left towards Srdenja vas v Bohinju.\n\nExit parking: Immediately before the bridge over the Ribnica turn right on a narrow road upstream until you reach a larger parking area above a torrent dam (last gravel road)\n\nEntrance parking: Access to the bridge over the Ribnica via Srdenja vas or via Jereka possible (large parking possibility slightly east of this bridge).

Approche: (traduction alternative)

Enter directly under the bridge

Tour: (traduction alternative)

The tour from the very top is not worthwhile due to extreme capping and lack of water (which is a pity, because the gorge would otherwise be very impressive). However, you could walk only the lowest part - from the lower parking lot follow the marked path to the second waterfall, then ascend via climbing tracks on the orographic left bank to above the escarpment and enter at a small diving pool: A short tour with a jump, several slides and 2 waterfalls of about 20m height.

Retour: (traduction alternative)

Along the trail back to the parking lot below the canyon.
