Résumé: (traduction alternative) Beautiful, vegetated, slippery canyon with 3-person cascade at the end (75m); when there is a lot of water, the canyon becomes dangerous; stances are well established; emergency exit possible before the last 4 rappel left.
Hydrologie:
Accès: (traduction alternative) approx. 10min From Bovec drive in the direction of Kobarid --> park in the village of Zaga before the bridge on the left side of the road in a turnout.
Approche: (traduction alternative) approx. 1h From the parking lot to the inn --> behind the inn a road goes up --> follow this for a few meters until a path branches off to the left --> follow this path parallel to the Ujcia --> there are several branches where you always keep to the left --> after a while you reach a meadow with a hut and a well --> behind this hut continue up the not always clearly visible path (parallel to the canyon) --> at about 700Hm you reach the stream.
Tour: (traduction alternative) approx. 3h It starts immediately with an approx. 25m rappel --> further short to medium high rappels follow --> walking passages --> until one comes to a 40m rappel with a sharp edge! (before that there is an emergency exit) --> after the high rappel again some medium high rappels follow --> after an approx. 10m rappel comes a short walking passages where you can get out over the visible hiking trail --> short rappel left of the tree --> now it really vertically further --> in a 3-person cascade it goes down a total of about 75m (C20, C30, C20) --> the pools are not so big --> belay to stand recommended!
Retour: (traduction alternative) approx. 30min After the last rappel left follow the trail to the meadow with hut and fountain --> follow the trail further to the parking lot.

It was relatively slippery during our inspection because there has been little water flow in recent weeks. Stands are older but fully ok. Forest gorge with a beautiful finale (traduction alternative)

Nice rappelling canyon, sharp edge in the waterfall in the middle of the canyon, the last abseiling triple cascade is the best, exposed anchor points and also not in the best conditions. It's also easy to miss the access road, we entered the canyon much higher than the standard start.
