Résumé: (traduction alternative) Not quite easy access. Descent over long stretches in grown rock. Some original passages. Best in water flow after heavy rains.
Hydrologie:
Accès: (traduction alternative) Coming from Nuoro or Oliena, we turn right from the SP46 for 4.3 km from the point where the eastern road exit of Oliena joins the ring road and we go for 2.4 km to the Su Cologone spring. About 200m before reaching the large parking lot, we turn right into the Valle di Lanaitto. There follows a climb on a narrow tarred road that later becomes a dirt road. After 4.4 km we come to a Y-junction. Both branches of the road lead to the destination, the one to the left is more frequented and in slightly better condition. We follow the signs "Su Oche" and 2.7 km after the junction we come to a house, where among other things the tickets for the surrounding caves and archeolog. Sights are sold. We park the car in the large parking lot.
Approche: (traduction alternative) We follow the signs to the remains of the Nuragh village of Sos Carros. Behind Sos Carros, we follow the dirt road for a few meters, looking for tracks and cairns that should guide us up south of the ditch that descends from above. If we don't find them or if we lose them again in the course of the climb, we keep westward upwards over the karstified slope. At an altitude between 350m a.s.l. and 400m a.s.l. we meet a relatively clear path coming from the right and going up to the left (SSW). We follow it, pass a shepherd's hut and finally reach a ridge. It now goes down beyond and in the now reached wide valley left downhill . At a junction we stay left and thus come to the entry.\nIf you shy away from the pathless climb at the beginning, you can follow the track that continues from the parking lot in a northerly direction. After 1400m, a track branches off to the left and we follow it. 260m above sea level, we reach a house. Here the track ends, but finds its continuation in a path that crosses the slope in a southerly direction, slightly ascending. This is the same path that we tried to reach without a path from the Nuragh settlement upwards. This path is clearly marked with the subsequent climb in Nop's riding and hiking map - island map, which can be downloaded free of charge from the Internet. I have drawn in this map section - to be found here under photos - also my access proposal (red dashed, corresponds to the sketch in the book of Jourdan/Fiorina) and that of Corrado Conca (blue-green dashed - to be found in his book).

Tour: (traduction alternative)

The descent goes downhill at the beginning over grown rock. After the first rappel you meet the edge of a pool, which - like all the following ones - can be climbed around. A total of 13 rappels are distributed over the varied descent.

Retour: (traduction alternative)

We come across a dirt road and follow it to the left (north) to the car.
