Avvicinamento: (traduzione alternativa) approx. 45min From the parking lot, follow the gravel road --> pass a barrier and continue up to a trail marking (Steinmandl+ signs) --> here take the path to the right and walk across the boulder field --> after about 20min. Giro: (traduzione alternativa) approx. 1-2h After a short swimming passage follows a mighty rock labyrinth in which one first rappels, then climbs down and swims (problematic with a lot of water)--> the mighty wedged limestone rocks are very impressive --> after the rock chaos a very narrow section follows, part only 1m wide section with high rock walls where the light is very sparse (very nice part) --> in this part is also a swimming section and a slide in very dark pools (attention very narrow) --> further on you come to a small abseil in a slowly rising pool. abseil in a slowly opening canyon --> swimming passage --> climbing over small rock chaos --> at the end there is a swimming passage of about 100m --> the exit is on the right (after a small iron plate bridge).
Ritorno: (traduzione alternativa) approx. 30min On the right side, hike up the clearly visible trail next to the wooden railings to the parking lot.

Relatively much water flow for the time of year. Siphon dived through instead of rock climbed over. Partly unusually slippery. (traduzione alternativa)

A fascinating canyon. You simply have to have done a canyoning tour here. Video of the tour:
