Good canyon after a lot rain. We had a good flow. The hike to the start of the canyon is fairly easy, provided you read the description carefully. It is indeed steep, and after the rain, some spots can be quite slippery. The anchor points are good but are placed in such a way that you always experience a lot of friction. So, it's important to know how to handle this properly. Approach hike: 1 hour Canyon: 3.5 hours
